Kelley Cawthorne, Michigan's leading government relations law firm, is moving to its new offices this weekend. The firm will be open for business on Monday, February 11, 2008, at 208 N. Capitol Avenue, just across the street from the State Capitol and next to the House Office Building. "We've always had great Capitol access. Now we have a Capitol address to match," said firm co-founder Dennis O. Cawthorne.

Kelley Cawthorne is consistently recognized as one of the state's top five (5) lobbying organizations by respected publications such as Inside Michigan Politics, MIRS News, and Crains Detroit Business.

The new Kelley Cawthorne offices will be in the beautifully renovated former Mutual Building which will also serve as headquarters of the Christman Company, a nationally recognized construction firm. The Christman Building also features a rooftop conference and special events space known as "The Capitol City Great Room" which has a dramatic view of the Capitol dome. Kelley Cawthorne's move to the well-appointed 8,900 square foot office suite at 208 North Capitol Avenue follows the firm's growth over recent years

A grand opening celebration is scheduled for Tuesday, February 26, 2008, from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. All Kelley Cawthorne clients along with legislators, staff, and key executive branch officials have been invited to attend. Please RSVP via e-mail at amccollough@Kelley-Cawthorne.com or online at www.christmanco/kelleycawthorne.

Please change your records to reflect our new Capitol address. We are enthusiastic about our expansion and we welcome our clients and friend to visit our new home.
